Sam's Quick Stop - Houston

— VISION | STRATEGY

Fragmented touchpoints. One connected experience.

Connect what a store does on the floor, on the website, and in the app, so the next conversation already knows the last one.

— OPERATOR

Meet Sam.

Sam runs a Houston convenience store, placing steady coffee orders and growing his energy aisle. A loyal operator who researches across industry events and supplier sites before engaging, he uses the ordering app mid-task, filling a cart with trusted coffee and regional items before being pulled back to the floor.

— VISIT | ANONYMOUS DISCOVERY

Capturing customer intent before the first order.

On the site. Sam explores coffee, energy drinks, and sweeteners his store has never ordered.

While he is still there. An assistant answers product questions, learns the store is Sam's Quick Stop in Houston, and can tell he is ready to buy.

Then a handoff. Those details become a lead a seller can follow up.
